☞ A Martha Washington Tea Party. ☜

Beginning around the country's centennial year of 1876, American ladies commemorated their ancestresses by dressing in their versions of festive eighteenth-century clothing to attend tea parties. As Manager of Mystic Seaport's Costume Shop, Melodie has done extensive research on this fascinating Victorian phenomenon of Colonial reenactment. Please help keep the tradition going by wearing or bringing something you consider "old-fashioned," whether it is or not!
